RON WILSON

FURNITURE REMOVALS & STORAGE

Ron Wilson Removals started its journey in 1948 founded by Ron Wilson. The business opened up with one truck and a office from Ron's home. It remained this way until Kevin Wilson, Ron's son joined him in 1965.

Three years later with the gaining of his truck licence, Kevin convinced his father to purchase a second truck and a warehouse in Seaford to accommodate the growing demand for furniture storage. Together, they built the 800m2 brick storage warehouse and began to fill it with clients furniture.

Fast forward 50+ years, and the family business is still running strong expanding into state of the art storage, container storage, and a modern fleet of Removalist vehicles.

Ron Wilson Removals still offers and prefers to conduct an in home consultation, our experienced staff will visit, discuss and answer all of your questions then provide a personalized removalist quote based on their many years of experience.

RON WILSON
FURNITURE REMOVALS & STORAGE

We take the worry out of moving...

Don't just take our word for it. This is what our clients have to say about our service!

★★★★★ Google Review

“We used Ron Wilson for a big, complicated move from metro melb to country vic. They were the only company I found that wasn't daunted by moving a large amount with two day 'hold'. The whole process was so smooth, the movers themselves lovely and helpful. The fixed price beat the projected cost of many of the 'cheaper' companies that charged by the hour. I would highly recommend and would use them again without hesitation”.

“Just as in the past, helping us, the team were tireless, energetic, enthusiastic and performed with care at both ends of the move. This company provides a truly fantastic service, at a reasonable price and we recommend them highly. It's no wonder they've been around and successful for so long. They enjoy an excellent reputation and would get more than 5 stars from us - but that's the max!”.

★★★★★ Google Review

“I would highly recommend using Ron Wilson Removals!!! We have used them 3 times now and don't even bother to look for other companies now as they're just that good! Moving is stressful enough as it is and they take so much care with all of our belongings - even dismantle & make our bed! They make sure you are happy with all the furniture placement and every box is put in the correct room. This and the fact that they're so friendly makes choosing them a complete “no-brainer”!!!!”.
